MORINVILLE TO JOIN NEW HEALTH UNIT

Municipal Council OK's Reorganization

Decision to join a reorganized health unit providing the population of the area being served is no more than 22,000 was made at a recent meeting of Morinville Municipal Council.

Dr. Siemens called on the Council in regards to the contemplated reorganization of health units bordering on the City of Edmonton, as it was proposed to split these units in two and form two units — one south of the Saskatchewan River and one north of the said river.

It was moved by Councillor Dussault and carried, that Council advise the Department of Public Health that we are in favor of a health unit, providing that the population to be served does not exceed 22,000. That we recommend to the Department that proposed unit be composed of the Municipal District of Sturgeon, No. 90, the Municipal District of Morinville, No. 91, the Towns of Beverly, St. Albert and Morinville and the Village of Legal. The Council believe that a much larger unit could not be served effectively. That should this district as outlined, not have the required population as above, the boundaries could be extended to include the immediate district, towns and villages bordering the district as outlined without extending the boundaries to any extent.

Sturgeon School Division

It was moved by Councillor Walker and carried, that Council approve the advancing of the third quarterly school requisition in the sum of $29,437.00 to the above Division as requested and due as at September 15, 1951.

Accounts

Accounts were presented to the Council for their approval and the passing of same for payment.

Public Works

Felix Messier appeared before the Council in regards to his work with the Public Works Department on the road construction gang on which he is the elevator man. Experience and seniority was discussed with the Council as well as the M.D. truck services. The Council advised Mr. Messier that they would get in touch with the road foreman, Mr. Cy during the day and try to arrange the matter as complained about.

Court of Revision

Three complaints as received by the Court were dealt with by the Council sitting as a Court of Revision.

Location: Lots 9-11, Block 3, Vimy; Land, 150; Buildings and improvements, 2100; No change. Pt. S.E. 32-55-25-W4th; Land, 80; No change.

Pt. R.L. 51 and 52-53-25-W4th; Land, 280; Buildings and improvements, 100; No change.

It was moved by Councillor Meunier and carried, that the Court be closed and that the complainants be advised in accordance with Ass. Sect. Act. M.D. The Council wish to have this matter referred to the Edmonton Union of Municipalities as the Council have no jurisdiction on an Indian Reserve and they sure don't feel responsible as it is contrary to Law for other than Indians to reside on reservations other than Dominion Government employees who are not subject to any Municipal tax whatsoever.

N.W. 32-57-26-W4th

Letter dated July 14, 1951, in

W. Half 3-57-26-W4th

The above case of land which was formerly under control of the Morinville Agricultural Service Board, was again brought to the attention of the Council, regarding settlement as to surplus to the owners. This land is no longer under the control of the Board. It was moved by Councillor Walker and carried, that Council have the former renter appear at the next Council meeting in order that this matter may be settled in accordance with the lease of the Service Board.

Imperial Oil

Complain regarding the damage to fences of seismograph crews between Section 24 and 25-56-26-W4th as made to the above was brought to the attention of the Council. Also letter dated July 31, 1951, regarding the revised deposit charges on steel barrels being increased from $8.00 to $12.00 and transformer barrels from $15.00 to $20.00 and on light steel drums from $5.00 to $7.00. It appears that more barrels than are returned in accordance with the recent records are being bought. There is sufficient barrels on hand that no charges on any barrels should ever be made as drums should be returned. The councillors concerned are to advise the road foreman in this regards and all employees are to be returned.

Public Utilities

Hearing in regards to the annexation of certain portions of River Lot 51 as per letter received July 16, from the above was read to Council; hearing having been held on July 25, 1951, at which no representative from the district was present. The Edmonton District Planning Commission's view in the matter dated July 6, having been filed with the Board.

Road Allowance

Application for the leasing of road allowance between Sec. 4 and 5-55-27-W4th as made by Charles Moore was read to Council. It was moved by Councillor Schafers that as this party is not the owner of land adjacent to the said road allowance, that the Council cannot recommend the leasing of the same to the Department, that he be advised accordingly.

Royal Alexandra Hospital

Letter regarding the hospitalization of other than treaty Indians living on an Indian Reserve was read to the Council as received from the above mentioned. The Provincial Government has ruled that even though civilians live within any Municipality, they are residents of that Council cannot recommend the leasing of the same to the Department, that he be advised accordingly.

Sec. 26-58-27-W4th

Letter dated July 28, 1951, regarding the condition of the road (Continued on Page 8)

New Families In Community

LEGAL—We are happy to say that we have two new families recently established in the parish or community of Legal. Mr. Devost, from Falher, Alberta, took over from Mr. Hugh O'Neill at the Alberta Pacific Grain Co. Ltd.; Mr. Hugh O'Neill is now in with the Wheat Pool at Calahoo; also Mr. and Mrs. Domina Nermard from Therien, Alberta, are residing in Legal since a month or so. We wish to welcome those two new families in our community.

Mr. J. B. Vaugeois, who had left his butcher shop last fall to work in the Far North, has come back home to his family for a holiday.

School children have been asked to register at the school term in the course of this present week. As holidays are drawing to the end now, things must take shape again for a new school term. The problem of getting school teachers for all grades has not yet been settled, but we hope it will be by the opening date, which will be on Sept. 4 next.

The sunny and warm weather which farmers have enjoyed for the past few weeks has favored a great deal the ripening of fields, which were very green yet at the beginning of the month. We hope that old man frost will be away for another month or so.

LEGAL—The thirteenth wedding of the present year took place in the St. Emile's Parish Church last Monday morning, Aug. 20, between Mr. Lucien Corbittre of Mallaig, in the diocese of St. Paul, and Lucienne Maurier of Legal, in the diocese of Edmonton. Many parents and friends of both parishes gathered for this solemn occasion, both for the religious ceremony in the church and the official banquet and dance, which were held in the public hall of the town of Legal. The parties will reside at Mallaig after a brief honeymoon trip. We wish them the best of happiness for years to come.

The event saw a fine sunny day. Farmers owning all types of machinery from surrounding districts attended. There, factory-trained instructors talked and demonstrated on operating, adjusting and maintaining farm machinery.

The Service School was in the hands of Sargo Bros., the Alameda Cocksouth dealers.

This service was free to all machine owners.

Need More Parks

In one way, Alberta doesn't need more provincial and national parks, because the province is already dotted with them. Jasper, Banff, Elk Island, Waterton Lakes and in the unsettled northern districts huge tracts of land are set aside for park and game preserve areas.

What this part of the province needs, however, is more smaller parks, properly developed for the common people of the province to use. Jasper Park and Banff are too far removed and, particularly with Jasper, too high priced for the family with less than $25.00 a day to spend on hotel accommodation.

The business men of Lac la Biche have promoted the idea of making a nearby island a provincial park. It could easily be connected to the mainland and to town by a causeway across a shallow strait and has sufficient area for hundreds of summer cottages. Fishing in Lac la Biche and other nearby lakes is good. The island is surrounded by golden sandy beaches. It is easily accessible to residents of the Athabasca, Boyle, Lac la Biche and outside areas.

Establishment of a number of Provincial Parks similar in purpose, but much smaller in area to Elk Island, which is a Dominion park, would be a good thing for people of this Province.

Strange Post Office Attitude

The Postmaster-General has effectively discouraged businessmen from sending circulations through the mail by raising the rate from 1c per piece to 1½c. The Post Office claimed they were losing money on the deal and won't guarantee delivery within four days from the date such mail is posted.

Insofar as the postmen make their rounds anyway, and other postal deliveries are made in the usual manner without third class mail matter, we don't see how the fact of the mailman delivering a few pieces of third class matter along with first and second class mail could increase the post office's expenses any. We can see where postal revenues can be disastrously reduced for no good purpose by not having this business. The deficits will be paid by the taxpayer without the service, which is a lot less desirable than getting something for taxes levied to pay for postal deficits.

Recent heavy increases in rates charged newspapers with postal privileges may increase postal revenues (at the expense of the subscriber, who will eventually pay with higher subscription rates). But in Prince Edward Island the Charlottetown Guardian has made a private deal with the mail couriers to deliver their papers to rural route patrons for less than what the post office would charge if the couriers carried the papers as part of their regular mail load. This is not only ridiculous but unfair to other publishers who haven't been able to make a similar deal with the couriers.

We don't see why the Post Office refuses to carry second and third class mail matter except at such high rates that it pays the patron to use private means of delivery. And if that private means of delivery includes the very men hired by the post office to do the job for certain publishers on an exclusive basis, it is downright silly. Why can't all the mail delivery be handled by the Post Office in the first place?

Hail Damage

If the present unsettled weather continues 1951 will undoubtedly be one of the worst hail years on record in Alberta. Up to the beginning of August an estimated million acres had been damaged, according to J. Glen Elder, chairman of the Alberta Hail Insurance Board. Fierce hail storms, accompanied in many cases by hurricane-like winds, struck on eighteen consecutive days in the latter part of July, and more storms have been reported since. Central and south central Alberta have borne the brunt of the damage, but other areas have not escaped, and probably the most damaging single storm lashed crops in the Beaverlodge district.

The areas hit represent about 8 per cent of Alberta's total seeded acreage. In 1930,

Mixed Notes

By JACK SCOTT

As any of you old O. O. McIntyre fans will remember, some of that entertaining man's most delightful stuff came under the casual heading of "Thoughts While Strolling," and I'd like to try something along those lines today.

Curious how a funeral procession on a sunny day seems so much more tragic than on a gloomy one. It's a fact that every top-flight dramatist knows. The most effective setting for a scene of terror is not the ghostly old haunted house in a lightning storm, but a children's playground in sunlight. I'm sorry that all that repetition so quickly killed the song "Ghost Riders In The Sky." It will surely be revived with success some future day. "A herd of red-eyed crows a-plowin' through the ragged skies and up a cloudy draw." What a grand line! Even Vaughn Monroe couldn't sour me on it.

Jack Scott

Should be some sort of public recognition for the unusual inventive genius who make life simpler. I would nominate the humanitarian who brewed the first liquid mosquito repellent, the most important invention since Scotch tape. Why doesn't some smart airline like TCA give new passengers a little booklet explaining what's happening to them when they fly? Even veteran air travellers never know what all the sounds are about, why the engines change their tune after the take-off, or why (in the North Star) they confront the ruby-red of exhaust pipes in night flying. It would certainly be a step closer to fearless flight.

The passenger feels a close sense of identity with the metal and fabric about him, might trust it a little more if he knew what it was there for.

What woman doesn't look more attractive in a French beret? . . . One of the dying words is "Hello". Haven't heard anybody say anything but "Hi" or "Hiya" in many a moon.

Funny how a familiar view takes on new, fresh beauty and color if you happen to see it accidentally in a mirror. Have you ever seen the scenery behind you framed suddenly in the rear-view mirror of a car and found the image refreshing?

If I were the hobby type, I'd surely start a collection of apt descriptive phrases, small chunks of prose that catch and hold a picture. Irwin Shaw, for example, recently wrote of "the lemony smell of floor wax." Or how about Ralph Allen's description of a surf "stroking" a sand beach? A line I liked recently, and can't remember the author, described a spaniel approaching its owner, "head down, shambling in a little ballet of love and propitiation." Things I wish I'd written.

You'll be surprised at how many different answers you can get to the question, "What is the most absorbing thing to watch?" Some nominations: a graceful woman's walk, the colored flame of a driftwood beach fire, the flight of a seagull, the green wake of an ocean liner. . . Ever see an Englishman whose shoes weren't fiercely polished?

Certainly like to know the secret of the gasoline companies in finding such eager, pleasant station attendants. Bought one single gallon of gas the other day to get me home and the lad gave a dollar's worth of courtesy. . . And it is just my bad luck or are all waitresses nursing some dark and secret sorrow over life? Haven't had a smile from one in recent weeks.

Must do a column some day on male gossip versus female gossip. Seems to me that a group of males are just as catty about mutual acquaintances as the ladies. Maybe more. What a silly world when so many people spend so much of their time at the indoor sport of character assassination. . . Looks as if the day of the garage is over. Architect friend tells me that he hasn't designed a house in the last year that didn't have a "car port" open on all sides. Which raises the problem of what to do with all the useless things that used to end up in the garage.

Nothing has the freshness of unconscious humor, as for example the paragraph in a news story this week, which read as follows: "Mr. Campbell's defense counsel asked for clemency because his client has an amputated leg and has no other means of support."

Can never understand why so many people purchase the smooth and meaningless trash of the slick-paper magazines when the New Yorker magazine is available. In 15 years of reading that weekly I've never tired of its wise and tolerant view of life and the times. . . Has anybody ever figured out an answer to those hearty citizens who greet you with, "What's new?"

by far the worst year on record, about 17 per cent of the total acreage was hit.

The unusual large amount of hail this year is said by meteorologists to be due to the presence of a stationary mass of cold air from the north Pacific lying over Alberta. This cold air mixing with warmer air from the earth's surface has created the hail and thunderstorms.

VET'S PROTEST

Dear Sir—A point that does not appear to have received any attention in the press is that fact that while Iranian oil may be subject to nationalization, the same cannot be said of the big oil refinery at Abadan. It was built by British and British money, and should not be subject to Communist-inspired national hysterical confiscation.

It must be noted that in recent years it has always been the small nations that have been guilty of international piracy, under the guise of nationalism. When Britain was the policeman of the world, we had peace. But now new policemen have taken over who do not know where they are going.

ANY VOLUNTEERS?

Dear Sir—I've just returned from the Korean front and learn that there actually are a few Communists in this country who have been rooting for our boys to get pushed out of Korea. I feel there should be an organization that would accept such characters as volunteers and give them Class A transportation to the Korean Communists they want to help. But I wonder if there would be any volunteers for this expedition, or are Canadian Communists good for talking only?

TEEN-AGE PROTEST

Dear Sir—The most rotten trick that Ottawa has ever pulled has just come off. War veterans who are 70 years or over, who are receiving war veterans' allowances and who apply for the universal old-age pension of $40 a month, will have their veterans' allowances reduced by the amount of the old-age pension. Although some of us will still be able to get medical aid, this looks to me like a typical rotten trick. And we were all told this new pension would be universal, with no means test! What a rotten trick!

DOUBLE FOR SNITCHING

Dear Sir—The fuss reported in the papers about that Ohio woman who didn't want her 14-year-old darling disciplined in school makes me sick. That's just the kind of thing that makes juvenile delinquents. When I was 16 a high school teacher slapped me. I complained to mother, hoping she'd fix the teacher. Instead my mom promptly tanned me with a razor sword. Then I behaved.

PAVING PROGRAM

Dear Sir—After reading the story in last week's Sun regarding the paving program on 118 Ave. and 66 St. I came to the conclusion that at least some progress is being made in Edmonton. But now I hear over the radio that city council is not satisfied with the paving on Connors Hill. Well, at least they're on their toes. Perhaps more qualified advice should be sought by the city before it undertakes paving jobs such as Connors Hill. There has already been considerable delay in getting this road open, and now it seems a further delay faces us.

DEFENDING PETAIN

Dear Sir—As a French-Canadian who lived many years in France, let me set the record straight. Marshal Petain was no more of a traitor than the man in the moon. The real traitor of France was Leon Blum, the Socialist leader. Petain was an enemy of Communists, who were responsible for the fall of France. Ask any real Frenchman who is not a Socialist or a Red and he will tell you the same thing.

Dear Sir—Just a warning to gardeners who have pets around. Be careful of the beetle spray you use. I used some recently, didn't notice it contained a certain ingredient, and it poisoned my dog. If you have pets and are in doubt about proper sprays, consult a veterinarian.

Governor-General Admitted To Blood Indian Tribe

ATTENDS CONVENTION

T. W. Pue, publisher of The Edmonton Sun and Community Publications, together with Mrs. Pue and their daughters, Dian and Betty Mae, are attending the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association annual convention in Winnipeg this week.

Delegates will be present from all parts of Canada, and a total attendance of about 500 is expected.

Civic and government dignitaries will be special guests at the convention. Guest speakers will include Hon. T. Campbell, premier of Manitoba, and Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent.

At ceremonies at Standoff, south of Lethbridge, the governor was admitted to the tribe through the select Indian transfer-of-head-dress ceremony as 4,000 persons, many of them from the Blackfoot confederation, looked on.

Head Chief Shot-Both-Sides marked both the governor-general's cheeks with red paint to begin the ceremony. The tribal chief then took a headdress, placed it on his own head, and then on the governor-general's head to signify his official entrance into the Blood Indian tribe.

Viscount Alexander took the name of Chief Pit-o-to-kon—Chief Eagle Head. His two sons, Brian, 12, and Shane, 16, were admitted as "Eagle Speaker" and "Many Fingers."

ALBERTA SEA CADETS, ROYALTY WILL TRAVEL TOGETHER

Worthless Stock Sales Feared in Alberta As Racketeers Renew Western Operations

Albertans should ignore from Ontario stock salesmen less stocks.

That's the advice from brokers here who warn that a current Ontario legislative probe into stock racketeers may bring about renewed efforts to develop their fraudulent operations in the west.

The probe being conducted by the Ontario crime committee may be cutting off the stock racketeers from operating in the U.S., thus forcing them to confine their operations to this country. Alberta government officials were silent on the matter as official statements would be considered "improper" while the judicial investigation is on.

Nevertheless, Albertans should be on guard against high pressure salesmanship by telephone, telegraph or mail. Eastern stock salesmen using telephone or similar methods to conclude deals are likely peddling stocks not qualified in Alberta.

Prospective buyers are advised to check with their own local brokers before making any purchases.

5,000,000 YANKS CAUGHT

In a letter to Ontario Attorney-General Dana Porter, chairman of the "Little Kefauver" crime committee, claim is made by Benjamin A. Javits, president of Independent Investors, Inc., a U.S. union of small investors, that 5,000,000 Americans own shares in Canadian mining and oil companies for which there is no market and which cannot be sold even at a loss.

It is stated most of these sales long-distance telephone calls who may be peddling worthless.

were made by racketeering Bay Street brokers operating by phone, wire or mail from Toronto.

Amendment to Canadian extradition laws are being considered to assist the U.S. in stopping high pressure selling by Canadian brokers.

ALTA. PAPERS WIN HONORS

WINNIPEG—Alberta newspapers received honors in the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association "better newspaper competition" here during the group's annual convention.

Well up on the list of papers accorded honors were those published by T. W. Pue, publisher of The Edmonton Sun and Community Publications.

The Lac la Biche Herald and The Morinville Journal were judged the second and third best Alberta papers in their circulation classification. The Lac la Biche Chronicle and The Crossfield Chronicle were also judged the second and third best Alberta weeklies in their circulation group.

Winner of the all-round competition.

T. W. PUE

"Papers Reflect Credit"

tion as the best Canadian weekly newspaper was The Barrie Examiner.

Other Alberta papers honored were The Drumheller Mail (third best editorial page) and The Claresholm Local Press (third best all-round paper).

Mr. Pue has been attending the convention in company with Mrs. Pue and their daughters, Dian and Betty Mae.

Mr. Pue holds ten memberships in the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association, largest group of memberships held by any individual publisher in Canada.

The Edmonton Sun, not having been established the required two years for membership, is not a member of the CWNA.

In commenting on Mr. Pue's papers, the judges said his papers "reflect credit on the editor and publisher."

Clerk—You say you want a ocher—red ocher like you use to paint bricks."

Tommy—Now, it's tappy ocher. Mom wants to make a pudding with it.

Just a Reminder

"What's that piece of string tied round your finger for, Bill?" "That's a knot. For-get-me-not is a flower. With flour you can make bread, and with bread you can make cheese. This is to remind me to buy some pickled onions."

Clean People

Mistress: "You place a finger bowl at each corner of the table, Mary. I suppose they used finger bowls at your last place?"

Mary: "Oh, no, mum! They always washed before they came to the table."

The Truth

"Do you say your prayers every night, Trudy?" asked the minister.

"Oh, no, Mummy says them for me," answered Trudy.

"Indeed; and what does she say?" he queried.

"Thank God you're in bed" was the prompt reply.

His Unlucky Number

"I've never had a chance," said the man with the hang-dog expression. "No matter what I do my unlucky number pops up and gets me into trouble."

"What is your unlucky number?"

"Thirteen. Twelve jurors and one judge."

LETTER TO LOUISA

Girl Will Make Mistake If She Marries Drunkard

Dear Louisa—I am going with a very attractive boy and am in love with him.

He wants me to marry him but I can't make up my mind because he has one fault.

He makes a good salary and is very polite, and nice to people until he drinks too much. Then he becomes very rude, even to me. He has promised that he will stop drinking after I marry him but my mother says if he won't stop before marriage, he will never quit afterwards.

I really do love him very much but I don't want to be the wife of a drunkard.

Do you think he will keep his promise?

A. B. L.

Answer:

No I don't think he will keep his promise. Nine out of ten men and women who drink to excess will lie about that when they tell the truth about other things.

If your young man is honest about reforming, he will show his good faith by doing so before you are married and not waiting until you can't help yourself.

If I were you, I'd try him for a year and, if he keeps his word to you that long, I think you will be reasonably safe in marrying him.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

My husband has the offer of a better job in another province but, we have two small children and

I hate to leave the town we have always lived in. My mother helps me with the children, too.

I have told my husband that I am satisfied with what he makes but he wants to go on up in his business and will not listen to me.

Do you think I should go with him or stay here until the children get larger? My mother says we can stay with her.

W. W.

Answer:

Go with your husband. When you married him, you didn't tell him that your vows were made on the condition that you could hold on to mother's apron strings.

Surely, if your husband is trying to make a success of his life, you should do your part by making him a pleasant home where he can be with his family.

If you stay with mamma now and he has to go his lonely way, he may find some one else who is not averse to being companionable in the absence of his wife.

LOUISA.

Alberta Firm Producing 'Tri-Focal' Eye Glasses

CALGARY, Alta.—(BUP)—Three-in-one glasses have arrived.

Naturally, they're known as "tri-focal" glasses, since they go one step further than bi-focals.

Bi-focals are designed to allow the wearer to see objects both at a distance and close at hand. The tri-focal lenses will make objects clearer in the intermediate range.

The break in focusing the eyes is made more gradual, and because of this, the tri-focals are tagged with the fancy name of "continuous vision lenses."

The lenses are being prescribed for persons over 50, because from that age on it becomes increasingly difficult to adapt one's eyes to changes in distances. Despite the advantages, Calgary optometrist S. Alwyn Bartlett said there were some drawbacks. "I don't think it will be a lens that everyone will want," he said.

"For one thing, they are about twice the price of ordinary bi-focals, and for some people it is necessary to learn to use them to the best advantage."

R. H. Morrison, another optometrist, said the lenses were easier on the eyes than bi-focals.

A third optometrist, L. F. deForest, said, "They require a little more care in fitting, but they do clear that intermediate range which bothers people when they reach the 60 to 70 year age."

DeForest pointed out that the new type of glasses were being used at present as "occupational lenses."

Druggists, accountants and others buying them were required to see things at the different ranges the glasses cover.

Winnipeg Mail Boxes

Keeps Big City Clean

WINNIPEG, Man.—(BUP)—Winnipeg's mail boxes are one of the reasons the city is regarded as one of the tidest in Canada.

Winnipeg postal authorities keep a separate record book of all the spectacles, liquor permits, wallets, and even money that goes through the slots of the city's 370 mail boxes.

Each year, hundreds of untraced articles are turned over to the police department. These include tulip bulbs, jewelry, accessories, and keys that would open a thousand doors.

Vatican Is Said To

Select Canada As Haven

ROME—Plans to safeguard the continuity of the Vatican administration in the event Rome is invaded by a power such as the Soviet Union have been ready for years, prelates said here this week. The plans are of course secret, but it is believed the church would be moved to a site in Canada, probably Quebec, if war should break out.
